Joshua Coleman Conference & Event Photography

Services & Rates Guide

At Upscale Entertainment Photography we specialize in creative, natural photography for all sizes of events, be they intimate focus-group meetings or large, multi-day international conferences.

*It was a pleasure working with Joshua. He is very personable and charmed many of the delegates. The rapport he developed with the people he photographed resulted in striking and attractive images. Although he put in very long days, he was always professional. At the end of the conference, I had hundreds of good-quality photos to enhance the website and multiple publications.

From discreet and respectful VIP photography to active, energetic coverage of live performances and special events, we've done it all.

With years of experience at events across California & Texas, we have the knowledge and equipment to tackle any situation, anywhere.

We pride ourselves for working in technically challenging situations and strive to make our images look natural to best portray your

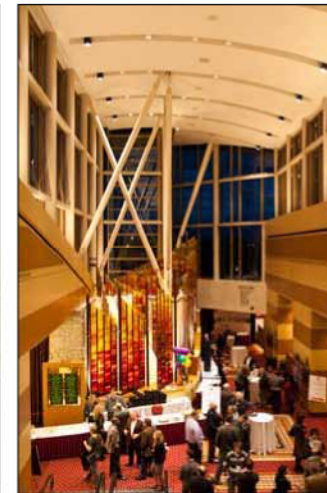

More than Just podiums, presentations and posters...

With a photojournalism-inspired, documentary style of photography, we focus on blending into your event and capturing all the action while making your guests and participants comfortable.

As organizers and event managers, we know that you work hard to create memorable events and the decorations, food, lighting, and venue are all equally important.

Our goal is to capture the atmosphere and convey much more of the event than just providing a record of who was there.
